Army May Flav Navy Here After All---Saratoga Keen Over Futurity to Be Run To-day

URGE NEW YORK FOR ARMY-NAVY CONTEST Named Hockmeyer

Still Chance for Football Game, Which May Come Here After All.

Efforts on to Induce Middies to Tackle Their Ancient Rivals There.

There is still a chance for the Army-Navy football game this year. This was learned yesterday from one who is in a position to know. Since it was announced that the Army football authorities had become ties had booked the Carlisle Indians for the date on their schedule usually oc-cupied by the Navy the latter has been stirred up considerably and those con-nected with the Naval Academy here ex-pressed the hope that the game might arranged yet.

It appears that pressure is being exerted to have the Army and Navy adjust their differences—the differences which led to the Army taking on the Indians—and with hope of success. The Army, as has been told, refused point blank to go to Philadelphia again for the game and has been strong for the Polo Grounds, New York, where, owing to the large seating capacity, the ticket can be accommodated to the

On that question there came a standstill in the negotiations for the contest, but now New York again is being con-sidered with a prospect of the game be-ing played here after all. The Indians and Dartmouth are booked to play at the Polo Grounds on November 15, but aside from that day the park is available for any date during the football season in case the West Pointers and midshipmen come to an agreement. Disinterested football enthusiasts prop ably would welcome a move which brought the Army-Navy game to New York. The metropolis can handle more visitors than any other city, a first class gridiron can be laid out at the field, the sweeping stands can take care of $8,000 persons and provide a good view and the field is easily accessible. Anyway, the advantage be had in New York, as pointed out those who are trying to bring the game here, may serve yet to land the big gridiron fixture at the ball park.

All things considered, the Polo Grounds the best place that could be chosen for the game, barring the stadium in Camidge, and there is no chance of the game going there. Playing it at the Polo Grounds doubtless would suit more persons who are interested in and would attend if possible this particular game than the selection of any other place. The Polo Grounds is used to big crowds, can handle its $5,000 or more with expert ease, as has been shown more than once at world's series baseball games. Strong efforts are being made to induce once at world's series basedail games. Strong efforts are being made to induce Uncle Samuel's rivals to do their grappling within the confines of the Brush stadium, and it can be said on good authority that Gotham isn't out of the running as this year's scene of the classic conflict.

NAVY CHARGES BAD FAITH.

Army Proposals Unfair, Statement Says, "From Navy Viewpoint."

ANNAPOLIS, Md. Aug. 29.-In spite of the official notification received from West Point this morning that the Army-Navy football game is off for this season representatives of the Naval Academy hope to save the game by an appeal to are not criticised publicly there is a strong undercurrent of feeling against the other service. It is felt that its proposals to play in New York or alternately in Annapolis and West Point are impracticable, that the Army should have announced its conclusions to the Navy before seeking another game and stating in the papers that the game would not be played, and finally that its action was not sportsmanlike in refusing to play after three ccessive defents.

The Navy hopes to save the game and for the present will make no effort to secure a game for November 23. If it should be settled finally that the Army will not play the Navy will try to bring one of the biggest teams of the country to Annapolis to close the season.

An official statement of the local side was issued by the Navy Athletic Associa-tion this afternoon. After stating that the Navy regarded the game as sure it

Regarding the sugges-tion that the game should be played on the Polo Grounds the conditions were prohibitive from the navy point of view; the time necessary to transport the mid-shipmen from Annapolis to the Polo Grounds would be eight hours in each direction, while the West Point cadets would spend only about four hours in the

It was stated further that Annapolis and West Point could not accommodate the crowd, while the student body would be compelled to miss the game in alternate years. MAPLEWOOD, N. H., Aug. 29.-

The name Hockmeyer stands out predominant to-day at Maplewood. This Lowell family has not only furnished a challenge for the tennis championship in the person of Victor Hockmeyer but it has taken first honors in both the double events. Victor and his brother, Oliver, took the men's doubles this afternoon from Hockmeyer, senior, and A. G. Gould of B oston, at 6-2, 6-0, 7-9, 7-5. He also piloted his sister Ethel to victory in the mixed doubles this morning by defeating Miss Jessie Gould of Boston and J. R. Scott of New York, 6-3, 1-6, 7-3.

NEARLY ALL BOUTS CUT SHORT.

Show Means "Out You Go." The scheduled boxing carnival at the Atlantic Garden A. C. last night, consisting of 160 rounds of four, six and ten round bouts, wound up shortly before the midnight hour, many of the bouts being cut short when the exhibitions were of a early rounds, but weakened at the end. Harry Pierce, a lightweight, showed pienty of class, finishing Frisco Lewis in the third round after a tough bout. No weights were announced in any of the bouts. The contests and the results:

Young Nelson was a better sprinter than Frankie White, but not a boxer, he lost; Harry Green had an engagement and quit in the first round with Young Jackson; Young Raymond and Joe Fox were so bad the crowd opened with the popular ditty in the first round. "Out the Window They Must Go," and that ended it. Hattling Burke beat Kid Manfred; Young Leonard was clever against Joe Battles, but the blows hurt him and he lost in the last round. "Battling Capin outtalked Andy Young and won his bout: Kid Barry was sent to the barber's after a round with Young Bob to get an extra trimming: Young Clancy and Ed Kiniey boxed on even terms.

In his bout with Eddie Pierce, Gussle Stack gave the battle cry. To arm to arms, but the chorus failed to respond and he chucked it up in the first; Battling Young said he could fight, but he didn't work at it last night and lost to Louis Crieger; Phil Levins and Eddie Dunn both work in an incure store and "framed" it; Patsy Marooney and Willie Hogan appeared to like the hours of the game, but not the work and got the "gate" in the third.

George Mannis requested that his bout with Bobby Gardner be stopped in the third round as he had to be home before 11 o'clock: it was with applause. Young Beecher and Young Ritchie both ran out of Wind in the third round and were ushered through the ropes by the referee. In the windup of ten rounds between Tommy Farrell and Young Ketchell there was little to choose between them at the end. It was a rough scrap full of action.

The most interesting piece of news in connection with the event which developed to-day was that Joe Notter, the master rider of the Whitney stable, had arrived and would have the mount on Pennant. This shows the determination of the Whitney stable to with the recent and which the stable to the stable ney stable to win the race, and it is understood that it was only by a vigorous process of reducing at the Brookdale Farm hat Notter was able to get anywhere near the weight required for him to ride the best of the Whitney pair.

In his races on Whisk Broom Notter has not been able to get in under 125 pounds, and the probability is that he will have to take up overweight on Pennant, which is in with 119 rounds. Pennant, which is in with 119 pounds. Pennant's two races have been so impressive that the opinions of most experts is that with a strong rider like Notter in the saddle he will be able to outfoot the formidable Southern Maid, which will have the services of Johnny McTaggart, the reigning idol among the riders here. WILL BATTLE IN PARIS

Bout Clinched for December 20 -Sam and Retinue to Sail in November.

Boston, Aug. 29.—Sam Langford and Jack Johnson will fight for the heavy-weight championship of the world in Paris on December 20. That fact became known to-day when Joe Woodman, Sam's manager, received a cable from Theodore. known to-day when Joe Woodman, Sam's manager, received a cable from Theodore Deinne of the Cirque De Paris officially agreeing to the terms offered by Langford. As a result Bob Armstrong, Jack Reid, the Australian lightweight champion; Woodman and Langford will sail from New York about November 1. They will proceed directly to Chantilly and there establish training quarters for the fight.

and there establish training quarters the fight.

Sam will get a big guarantee and a percentage. Prior to that, however, he will engage in several bouts in this country, possibly showing in New York and almost surely showing here in Boston. The local executions are anxious to get Sam and promoters are anxious to get Sam and Gunboat Smith for an early attraction and there is considerable likelihood of the

Said Woodman to-night: "I haven't any doubt about Sam's ability to beat Johnson, nor have I had during the past He has loafed for almost a year. In two weeks he took off thirteen pounds. He will take off six more this week and about the same next week. When he meets Johnson he will weigh about 180 and I think that as he is in the best shape he has ever been in he surely will defeat the hig fellow and bring the title defeat the hig fellow and bring the title

Mention of the name Johnson always riles Samuel Langford, Esq. The South American negro, John Lester Johnson, no relation to Li'l Arthur, has been spoiling for a scrap with the Tar Baby for some time, and yesterday Langford agreed to take him on in a ten round bout at the Atlantic Garden A. C. on September 9.

John Lester should provide himself with a pillow upon which to lay his head when Samuel cuts loose his famous sleep wallop.
